

Libraries closing for festive period

Tweed Shire libraries will be closed to the public during the festive period, from noon on Christmas Eve.

The Kingscliff and Murwillumbah libraries will reopen on Tuesday 3 January at 9am and will have new opening hours in 2017.

Murwillumbah Library will be open 9am to 6pm on weekdays, with an extended closing time on Thursdays at 7pm.

Kingscliff will operate from 9am to 5pm on weekdays, and will stay open an extra hour on Wednesdays until 6pm.

Both will be open from 9am to 1pm on Saturdays.

Tweed Heads Library is set for a major upgrade from the start of 2017 and details of the resumption of library services at Tweed Heads in the New Year will be announced later this month following a report to Council on 15 December. Information about the continuation of library services during the Tweed Heads Library upgrade will also be released at this time.

After-hours return chutes will be available at the Murwillumbah, Kingscliff and Tweed Heads libraries throughout the festive period closures.
