Hear a local poet
tell his story!

From school dunce
to working at 14
and writing books

Richard Alexander grew up in Sydney,
but spent a lot of time at Mittagong
in the NSW Southern Highlands,
and his love for everything 'country'
has never waned since those childhood days.

Author Event

Jenn J McLeod

Jenn J McLeod was fifty when she started ticking things off her bucket list and so far she's made that sea change, written that bestseller, and downsized her life to a 25-foot caravan named Myrtle the Turtle to do the big lap of Oz very slowly.

A nomadic novelist since 2014, Jenn has penned six small-town stories, including the 2013 top-selling House for all Seasons.

Her novels are life-affirming tales of friendship and family with a backdrop of country life.
