In-Conversation with Dr Hilton Koppe: Friday 24 February from 10am

Dr Hilton Koppe's memoir, One Curious Doctor, is a fascinating exploration of migration, medicine and mortality. Koppe uses this opportunity to ponder what life experience has impacted him the most, what has shaped him and what has led him to his recent diagnosis of PTSD. Listen to stories of family history, heartfelt reflections on patient interactions and Koppe's journey to work as a doctor and educator in the Northern Rivers. Bookings essential.

Bookish Trivia: Friday 17 February from 2pm
Think you know books? Come along and test your knowledge with Bookish Trivia. Held in the library in celebration of Library Lovers Day, learn once and for all who is the ultimate bookworm. Bookings essential.

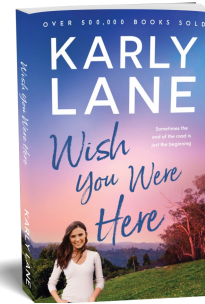

Makerspace Textile Group: Thursdays from 2pm
Are you a crafter, knitter or crocheter? Are you looking for a social setting to share, learn and practice your skill? All ages and skills are welcome to this free program.

Tech Savvy for Seniors: Tuesdays from 1.30-5pm

Author Visit Karly Lane: Monday 20 February from 10am

An event not to be missed! Come see Karly Lane and hear about her new book "Wish You Were Here" at Ballina Library. Karly lives and breathes rural Australia and has made life in the country the central theme of all her books which span a variety of genres including rural romance, family sagas, suspense and fantasy. Bookings essential.

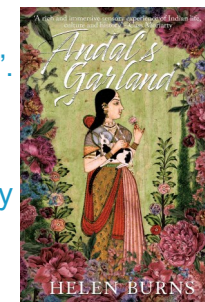

Author Visit Ben Hobson: Wednesday 8 February from 10am

Ben Hobson is a teacher, and an author, based in Brisbane. He also runs Ben's Book Club, a monthly online book club for libraries, and the Burgers, Beers and Books podcast. 'The Death of John Lacey' is his third novel. It is a searing Australian western set in the goldfields of Ballarat, a viscerally powerful story of greed, power and violence. Bookings essential.

Author Visit Helen Burns: Monday 6 February from 10am

Meet author Helen Burns and hear about her new book "Andal's Garland". It has been described as a rich and immersive sensory experience of Indian life, culture and history; a story of beauty and poetry of the 8th century interwoven with a contemporary search for self-enlightenment. Bookings essential.
