Author Visit Nikki Mottram: Wednesday 22 March from 2pm

Nikki Mottram is a debut author, drawing on her extensive background in child protection in this new work of crime fiction. Inspired by an unsolved crime in the 1990s and written through the author's extensive career in child protection and personal understanding of small-town life, Crows Nest is a stunning debut that takes a look into the raw and honest life of welfare work. Told from the perspective of Dana Gibson, an out-of-town social worker pulled into the chilling murder investigation of two local women. Bookings essential.
