

Byron Bay Library—June

Refugee Week 2025

Finding Freedom- Diversity in Community Morning Tea

Join 'Northern Rivers for Refugees' for a Q and A about the national community-based refugee settlement program. Over the past two and a half years this program has welcomed over forty refugees to the Ballina, Byron and Tweed Shires.

Monday 16 June 10.30 am

Bookings essential 66858540 or online
www.rtrl.nsw.gov.au

Jarjum Story Time with Aunty Delta

As a follow on from Reconciliation week we are so pleased to present this special event for pre-school ages, on Tuesday 10 June at 10.30 am

Regular Children's programs in June

Story Time, 10.30 on Tuesdays &
Baby Time, 10.30 on Wednesdays

Scrabble Club

Every Tuesday through June from 2-4 pm

Local History Research Morning

In partnership with the Byron Bay Historical Society, this group uses the library's local history collection and other resources to sort fact from fiction and create accessible narratives of Byron Bay's history.

All welcome.

Wednesday 12 June at 9.30 am

Byron Library Textile Group

Are currently working on a collective work to enter the Steiner Wearable Arts competition. If you'd like to add some stitches and ideas, do come along, every second Thursday at 1pm.

Please phone the library 66858540 to check which Thursday

Byron Bay Library—June

Refugee Week 2025

Finding Freedom- Diversity in Community Morning Tea

Join 'Northern Rivers for Refugees' for a Q and A about the national community-based refugee settlement program. Over the past two and a half years this program has welcomed over forty refugees to the Ballina, Byron and Tweed Shires.

Monday 16 June 10.30 am

Bookings essential 66858540 or online
www.rtrl.nsw.gov.au

Jarjum Story Time with Aunty Delta

As a follow on from Reconciliation week we are so pleased to present this special event for pre-school ages, on Tuesday 10 June at 10.30 am

Regular Children's programs in June

Story Time, 10.30 on Tuesdays &
Baby Time, 10.30 on Wednesdays

Scrabble Club

Every Tuesday through June from 2-4 pm

Local History Research Morning

In partnership with the Byron Bay Historical Society, this group uses the library's local history collection and other resources to sort fact from fiction and create accessible narratives of Byron Bay's history.

All welcome.

Wednesday 12 June at 9.30 am

Byron Library Textile Group

Are currently working on a collective work to enter the Steiner Wearable Arts competition. If you'd like to add some stitches and ideas, do come along, every second Thursday at 1pm.

Please phone the library 66858540 to check which Thursday